

The Deepening Crisis

Governance Challenges After Neoliberalism

Edited by Craig Calhoun and Georgi Derluigan

A joint publication of the Social Science Research Council and New York University Press

Contents

- Introduction 7
Craig Calhoun and Georgi Derluigian
- 1 Crises in Parallel Worlds: The Governance of Global Risks in Finance, Security, and the Environment 19
David Held and Kevin Young
- 2 Green Social Democracy or Barbarism: Climate Change and the End of High Modernism 43
William Barnes and Nils Gilman
- 3 Ecologies of Rule: African Environments and the Climate of Neoliberalism 67
Michael J. Watts
- 4 Economic Crisis, Nationalism, and Politicized Ethnicity 93
Rogers Brubaker
- 5 War and Economic Crisis 109
Mary Kaldor
- 6 A Less Close Union? The European Union's Search for Unity amid Crisis 135
Vincent Della Sala
- 7 The Paradox of Faith: Religion beyond Secularization and Desecularization 157
Adrian Pabst

8 Global Governance after the Analog Age:
The World after Media Piracy 183

Ravi Sundaram

9 From Full to Selective Secrecy:
The Offshore Realm after the Crisis 203

Vadim Volkov

Notes 221

About the Contributors 275

Index 279